

Talking points for Julie Jones:

- What occurred in the emergency room in a major metropolitan area during a federally declared emergency.
- The number of patients that were treated.
- The psycho-social issues that first responders deal with in a disaster.
- The potential problems in San Francisco now that there is reduced emergency room capacity as a result of the closure of Mt. Zion.